[Mandarin Summer Camp Q & A]

Q1: How are students divided?

A: There are 2 age groups in the Mandarin Summer Camp – 7-9 years old and 10-13 years old. MLC will held placement test on first day of summer camp. The test including speaking, listening, reading and writing. MLC will classify student's level according to test result. 7-9 years old students will classified to beginner, elementary and pre-intermediate. For 10-13 years old students will classified to beginner, elementary, intermediate and advanced. There are around 15 students in each class.

Q2: If we sign up for two sessions together, will the learning content overlap?

A: No. The textbooks arranged for the 2 sessions are different. If students plan to stay in Taiwan for a longer period of time, signing for 2 sessions is suggested since the whole Mandarin learning environment is all around students ready to grasp.

Q3: Which of Mandarin character MLC use in class?

A: For beginner, elementary and pre-intermediate level, textbook shows Traditional Chinese and Simplified Chinese Character with zhuyin and pinyin. For intermediate and advanced level textbook will only shows Traditional Chinese and Simplified Chinese Character.

Q4: Do you offer lunch for students?

A: Students can choose to prepare their own lunch or order lunch from the school. If the students need the lunch service from the school, the fee is NT$1500 per session. Payment should be made along with the tuition.

Q5: What does the tuition fee include?

A: Tuition fee included Mandarin course and cultural course material. Field trip ticket, bus, accidental insurance. But tuition fee do not included any of books which teachers require or suggest in class.

Q6: How is your Mandarin Summer Camp teacher background?

A: All of teachers have a bachelor's degree and at least two years teaching experience.

Q7: How can I sign up for the program?

A: For register summer camp program, you can either sign up online or sign up on-site.

Sign up online:

- (1) Online application link: <https://reurl.cc/b6kgz3>.
- (2) When you complete application form, please click "submit" button.
